1. Introduction

In Coton-in-the-Elms Primary School we strongly believe that bullying is:

- Several times on purpose
- Calling people names
- Being violent to others
- Hurting people's feelings
- Pulling rude faces
- Always leaving people out

If these things happen often, talk to Mr Smith, tell an adult or press the stop button on our school website.

2. Aims

As a school, we are an anti-bullying school so we want to stop bullying as much as we can. We want to stop all of the bullying that happens so if you see, or are being bullied, you must tell a teacher or other member of staff what is happening to you or to another person. We will help you if you are being bullied so tell a teacher.

3. Prevention

We have:

- Pupil voice sheets in school. You should find them near the library
- P.H.S.E lessons to help you understand bullying
- Anti-bullying charters
- STOP button
- Anti-bullying day
- Odd socks day

4. How to report bullying

This is the stop button

In Coton in the Elms Primary School to report bullying, you can:

- press the stop button on the website
- tell an adult or teacher
- fill in a pupil voice sheet
- ask your friend to tell a teacher

The pupil voice sheet is a piece of paper you write on to tell an adult what has happened or if you are worried about being bullied in school. The S.T.O.P button is found on the school website and it stands for several times on purpose. If you are being bullied outside of school, tell an adult about what happened. If you are being bullied in school, tell a teacher or member of staff. Tell a friend if you are being bullied, they might be able to help you if you are bit nervous after what has happened.

5. How we are an anti-bullying school

We have not got many bullies in our school. We have anti-bullying week every year. We have an anti-bullying charter that the students sign every year to promise that we will not be unkind to others.
